P R E F A C E

When this work was begun, nearly two years ago, it was not our intention to publish the information contained in this book, but merely to gather together as many early Kentucky records as possible; to create new interest in research among our chapters, and to preserve the material thus gathered in the archives of the Kentucky State Historical Society, and Memorial Continental Hall.

As the work grew in volume, and in value, we realized the importance of publication, so that these records might be accessible to all.

Many sources of information available at the present time will soon be closed to us. The family burying ground is now a part of the past; the farmer's plow has already erased the graves of countless Revolutionary heroes; grave-stones lie crumbling, with inscriptions almost illegible; valuable old Bibles containing family records are growing fewer with each succeeding year.

So, from the beginning of what we considered a worthy undertaking, this work has grown, and continues to grow. Many chapters unrepresented in this publication have not completed their research, and their records will be too late to be incorporated in this book. It is our earnest desire, however, that this volume may prove so helpful that it may be the fore-runner of others.

If slight errors have crept into this compilation, we ask your forbearance, for it must be remembered the greater part of the manuscript was sent to us in longhand.

We desire to express our appreciation for the work of those loyal women who have labored in the offices of county clerks and elsewhere, giving freely of their time and energy to make it easier for the descendants of early Kentuckians to trace their lineage; and if this little book proves helpful to those descendants, now scattered over every state in the Union, then shall we feel that it has performed its mission, and we have not labored in vain.

JULIA SPENCER ARDERY.

BOURBON COUNTY INDEX TO ESTATES

From 1785 to 1840

(Contributed by Mrs. William Breckenridge Ardery, Jemima Johnson Chapter, Paris, Kentucky)

As the primary object in making the following index was to complete, as far as possible, a list of Revolutionary soldiers who died citizens of Bourbon County, the names of all women who died between these dates, leaving estates, have been omitted.

SNODDY BIBLE

(Contributed by Mrs. Mary H. Dean, Gen. Evans Shelby Chapter)

NOTE: The family records copied from the Bible of Robert Snoddy. The Bible was printed by Mathew Cary, 118 Market Street, Philadelphia, Penn., Oct., 1802 and bought by Robert Snoddy in 1803. We know by the fact being handed down from son to son, and neighbors that knew him, that he and his brother James were with Washington during the Revolution and were with him at Yorktown at the surrender of Cornwallis. The above mentioned Bible is the property of Carey Snoddy, Owensboro, Ky., great-grandson of Robert Snoddy. Robert Snoddy's will is in file on the Barren County Court House, dated 1820.

John Snoddy came from Ireland in 1740. He married Agnes Glasgow in the Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, Penn., Oct. 7, 1741. Later he was Justice of Peace, Washington County, Va.
